

MAKE-UP SOLUTIONS

Does your make-up always look the same?

Do you know what make-up colours best suit your skin tone?

Are you tired of wasting money on make-up that doesn't work for you?

Are you lost by the variety of make-up products and counters to choose from?

This programme will provide you with the basic knowledge on how to choose the correct make-up colours and products that work best for your skin tone and skin type. This hands-on workshop will provide insight as to what the differences are between class and mass market products, and how to choose the correct colours for you by having a skin tone assessment completed.

All too often we are bombarded with so many varieties of make-up products and manufacturers that it is easy for us to become confused. The main purpose of this programme is to arm you with the knowledge to purchase only what is the best for you and to never be swayed by the sales quotas of make-up counter staff ever again. Ultimately, this knowledge will save you time and money in the long run.

Make-up Solutions includes:

By receiving an individual face shape analysis, you will learn how to create various make-up looks for any occasion through hands on practice with class market products. By bringing your own make-up kit, you will be able determine if the colours you have been wearing and purchasing are the right ones for you.
